FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Greater Than Games, LLC is pleased to announce the promotion of Jennifer Closson, Creative Director of Greater Than Games, to Chief Operations Officer.

St. Louis – November 26, 2019 – Greater Than Games today announced it has promoted Jennifer Closson to Chief Operations Officer.

Jennifer Closson joined Greater Than Games in 2014 as a Graphic Designer and quickly ascended the ranks to become Creative Director in 2016. In addition to many items within the Sentinel Comics line, Jennifer has worked on games such as New Bedford, Spirit Island, Homebrewers, and Medium. Along with her work in the creative realm of GTG, Jennifer also has spent much of her 5 years with the company assisting behind the scenes with aspects of convention planning, organizing timelines for upcoming games and business ventures, and working with the team at GTG to continue to help the company grow.

“From the day she started back in 2014, Jennifer has been a critical stabilizing force at Greater Than Games. Her attention to detail and focus on quality and professionalism have been instrumental to our success and growth over the years. She has an unparalleled ability to break massive and chaotic problems down into systematic and solvable portions, a talent which she has leveraged to great advantage in her role as Creative Director, and which I see being even more valuable going forward as Chief Operations Officer.” - Paul Bender, CEO.

Jennifer will maintain her role as Creative Director as well as Chief Operations Officer. Jennifer will be attending PAX Unplugged December 6-8.
